GHW09 Russia Group Project

With a partner you will create a presentation that covers one of the following topics, which the teacher will pick for you at random once you have a partner. Your task is to create a presentation that thoroughly covers the topic that you will teach to the rest of the class. Use your textbook and the following page numbers to get started on this assignment and then use the laptops and internet to find additional information, including pictures. Finish by putting all your information in a PowerPoint, which you will use to present to the class starting next week. Make sure you cite your sources and in addition to your textbook you must use at least 3 different sources.
