

Classroom Expectations

Geography and History of the World (GHW)

Mr. Kidwell

FCHS FA Room 9212

In addition to the school rules there are several classroom expectations.
Classroom Expectations:

1. Be in your seat when the bell rings. Copy the daily quote into your notebook.
2. Come prepared to class with agenda, textbook, writing instruments, folder, and any completed assignments.
3. Show respect to everyone in class at all times.
4. No gum, candy, or drinks except in special circumstances.
5. No lying, cheating, horseplay, or actions that could cause injury to yourself and others.
6. Leave the classroom like you found it. If you see trash, pick it up, even if it is not yours. WE RECYCLE-put paper in the recycling bin!
7. Write your name on every paper. No NAME papers will be put in the recycling bin and you will not get credit!
8. Talking, noise making, or gesturing during a test or quiz will result in a referral and an automatic "0". Be courteous to test takers around you.
9. No cellphones, IPods, or MP3 players are to be out or used during class time.
10. If you need help, let me know! I can be contacted by phone, email, or come and see me before school.

Course Description

This two semester course will serve as the standard social studies requirement for freshmen. Students will use geographical skills and historical concepts to deepen their understanding of global themes. Students will use research tools to ask questions and acquire relevant information. They will use primary and secondary sources, produce maps, timelines and other graphic representations to interpret geographic and historical problems and events. Key concepts include change over time, cultural landscape, diffusion, human environment interactions, physical systems, and spatial organization and variation.
